She looked at the pieces and said, 'What shall we do with them, Mother?' 'You mustn't spend them foolishly,' said their mother. The twins ran into the street. They wondered what they should buy. Should they buy candy? They hardly knew how it tasted. Should they buy a toy? If they had been the only children in the family, things might have been different. But there were three boys older than them and two little younger sisters.

They hadn't gone far when they met a larger boy who was blowing a flute. 'I wish I had that flute,' John said. The big boy looked at them and blew it again. Oh, what a pretty sound it made! Sophia showed the money to the boy. 'You may have them if you will give us the flute'. 'All of them?' the boy asked. She looked at her brother then nodded. 'Well, it's a deal,' said the boy, and he gave the flute to the boy and took the pennies. Little John was very happy. They ran home quickly.

'You've paid a dear price for this thing. You might have bought half a dozen of such flutes with the money' said his mother. The twins saw what a mistake they had made. The flute did not please John anymore. He threw it upon the floor and began to cry. 'Never mind', said the mother very kindly. 'You are only very little, and you will learn a great deal as you grow bigger.'
